Grading Key
 = outstanding; * = excellent;  = good;
 = fair; * = poor.

Spinal Cord Medicine, edited by Steven Kirshblum, Denise I. Campagnolo, and Joel A. DeLisa. 655 pp, with illus, $129. Philadelphia, Pa. Lippincott Williams & Wilkins (telephone: 800-638-3030), 2002. ISBN 0-7817-2860-X.

Type and Scope of Book: This multi-authored text is the first comprehensive source of information related to the specialty of spinal cord medicine.

Recommended Readership: Physical medicine and rehabilitation physicians, fellows in spinal cord medicine, and residents in physical medicine and rehabilitation, neurology, general internal medicine, or other specialties that may be involved in the care of patients with spinal cord disorders.

Overall Grading: *****

Ronald K. Reeves, MD, Medical Director, Spinal Cord Injury Program, Department of Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation, Mayo Clinic, Rochester, Minn

Conflict and Catastrophe Medicine: A Practical Guide, edited by James Ryan, Peter F. Mahoney, Ian Greaves, and Gavin Bowyer. 409 pp, with illus, $129. New York, NY. Springer-Verlag (telephone: 800-777-4643), 2002. ISBN 1-85233-347-2.

Type and Scope of Book: A multi-authored entry-level textbook that attempts to outline practical topics involved in medical care during conflict and natural or man-made catastrophes.

Recommended Readership: This book would be ideal for administrators, planners, logistics and operations support personnel, and health care workers who are interested in working in a conflict area or with refugees. It may be most useful to medical, dental, and nursing students contemplating an overseas rotation or elective.

Overall Grading: *****

Gregory A. Poland, MD, Mayo Vaccine Research Group, Mayo Clinic, Rochester, Minn

HIV Infection in Primary Care, edited by R. Michael Buckley and Stephen J. Gluckman. 297 pp, with illus, $49. Philadelphia, Pa. WB Saunders Co (telephone: 800-545-2522), 2002. ISBN 0-7216-8601-X.

Type and Scope of Book: This multi-authored hardcover teaching text, written primarily by faculty from the University of Pennsylvania, is organized according to stages of human immunodeficiency virus (HIV) disease. It attempts to cover the problems most commonly encountered in caring for persons infected with the virus.

Recommended Readership: This text will be useful for primary care physicians, physician extenders, and residents involved in the care of patients with HIV.

Overall Grading: ***
